People are talking about Firefly Restaurant in Panama City Beach! Apparently, it's a treat!

Scenic 98 in Destin Area:

Pompano Joes (seafood, casual, can be crowded, can have trouble parking during busy season, located overlooking the Gulf)

Crap Trap (seafood, casual, overlooking the Gulf)

Sandestin/Outlets Area:

The Surf Hut (seafood, casual, overlooking the Gulf)

Vint'j (Wine Bar and Bistro, not beach, but casual-dressy, cozy, very good)

Seagar's Steak House in Sandestin Resort (upscale, dressy, can be pricey)

West End of 30-A:

La Playa at Gulf Place (very casual, very beachy)

The Vue on 30-A

Goatfeathers

Chanticleer's in Grayton Beach is a great place for lunch/takeout

Grayt Grounds is the place for breakfast

East End of 30-A:

Café 30-A (nice, dressy, seafood, does offer some semi-private and private rooms)

The Pearl at Rosemary Beach (expensive, nice)

George's at Alys Beach (expensive, casual)

La Cocina (Mexican, casual, affordable, but nice) in Seagrove

Bud and Alley's at Seaside (Rooftop Bar is great for cocktails/gathering, can be pricey)

Fish Out of Water in Watercolor (pricey, nice)

Great Southern Restaurant in Seaside (Super food, casual but nice)

Restaurant Paradis in Rosemary Beach (expensive, nice, amazing food)

La Crema in Rosemary Beach (Tapas) (truly an experience—there's nothing like this place around. European feel, outdoor seating with café lights, great wine and amazing tapas—that are very filling! This is one of my most favorite places to eat lunch or dinner, meet, have coffee/dessert.)

Edwards in Rosemary Beach (more formal, expensive, beautiful setting)

The Lake House Bar & Grill at Carillon (*This seems to be the go-to spot for Rehearsal Dinners for a Carillon wedding. It's very convenient, can accommodate up to 75 guests on the porch outside, and has an affordable menu.)
